*A partial refund via QuickBooks will be issued in November to clubs that have teams playing in the U16 and HS brackets with a shortened fall travel soccer season to avoid conflicts with the high school soccer season.

Note: Dual carded player refers to a player that is playing on a travel and premier team, but their premier team is a team within their primary club. A player would be listed as P on their travel team roster and DC on their premier team roster.

A secondary player refers to a player that is playing on a travel and premier team, but their premier team is not within their primary club. A player would be listed as P on their travel team roster and S on their premier team roster.

If a player is only playing for a premier club, then that player would be listed as P on their premier team roster.
